KICKING AT THE KING

He Changes the Color of Mourning
for Decorating Buildings.

PURPLE IS SCARCE.

Princess Beatrice Will Occupy Portion of the Osborne House—Some of
of the Notables Who Will Attend the Funeral.

Cowes, Jan. 29.—The king's order directing that the drapery of the buildings be purple has created no little consternation. Many buildings here and in London and other places are already covered with black. It will cause no end of expense to make the necessary alterations. In addition, the supply of purple is already getting short.

The duke of York is suffering from the strain of events and has been confined to his room since Thursday. It is feared he will be unable to take part in the ceremonies on Friday.

The outer coffin arrived here Monday. Non-commissioned officers detailed to carry the coffin rehearsed today with a dummy coffin filled with sand and weighing over half a ton.

The main wing of Osborne House is expected to become the residence of Princess Beatrice in her capacity as governor of the Isle of Wight. Other parts of the house will be reserved for the king.

Crown Prince Frederick of Denmark is expected to arrive in London tomorrow. Prince Henry of Prussia sailed from Kiel Monday on board the German battleship Baden, accompanied by the coast defense ship Hagen. Prince George of Saxony is prevented by influenza from coming to the funeral. Prince John George will take his place. Duke Albrecht will represent the king of Wurttemberg. Crown Prince Ferdinand of Roumania is expected Thursday night in London. The Orleans family will be represented by the duke of Chartres, a younger brother of the late count of Paris. The duke of Alencon and count of Eu, sons of the late duke of Nemours, between whom and the late queen in 1838, Louis Philippe tried hard to arrange a marriage, will be in attendance.

Kaiser's Visit to England.

Berlin, Jan. 29.—The Vorwaerts, the Socialist organ, prints a remarkable story to the effect that Emperor William's sudden departure for England was not only due to the desire to bid farewell to his dying grandmother, but still more to the prince of Wales's urgent wish to settle a private debt affair to the emperor before ascending the throne. This debt, the Vorwaerts asserted, amounted to 24,000,000 marks, which Emperor Frederick, immediately after beginning his reign loaned to the prince of Wales in order to place the latter in a position to pay accumulated debts. The loaned money, it is further asserted, was part of the savings amounting to 56,000,000 marks left by Emperor William I. Count Von Strolberg, minister of the imperial household, the Vorwaerts also says, vainly opposed paying out 24,000,000 marks and thereupon resigned. In official circles here, the Vorwaerts's story is characterized as a gigantic hoax.

Cession of Islands Announced.

Madrid, Jan. 29.—The cession of Sabutu and Cagayan de Jolo islands to the United States has been gazetted.

Churches Going Into Politics.

St. Louis, Jan. 29.—The Evangelical alliance, which includes all churches of St. Louis and vicinity, with the exception of the Catholic, Episcopal and German speaking churches, has inaugurated a movement for municipal reform. The plan is to form a permanent committee of 50 representative men to pass upon nominees submitted by various parties, especially for spring election. The intention is to keep the movement entirely non-partisan and non-sectarian.

Preparing for Mrs. Nation.

Arkansas City, Kas., Jan. 29.—The report is circulated here that Mrs. Carrie Nation will be in this city this week. Immediately saloon keepers began making preparations to prevent her destroying their property. Barricades, ready to be put in place at a moment's notice, have been constructed and sentries have been placed to give warning of her approach.

Gibson Pleads Guilty.

Jackson, Miss., Jan. 29.—In the circuit court here Contractor Gibson of Indiana, on trial for alleged attempt to bribe Governor Lingino in the matter of the capital contracts, withdrew his plea of not guilty and entered a plea of guilty. By agreement with the prosecution he accepts a fine of $1000 and costs and the court set aside the forfeiture of his $5000 bond.

Another Carnegie Gift Accepted.

Lewiston, Me., Jan. 29.—The city council has voted unanimously to accept the offer of Andrew Carnegie to give for a free public library ten times the amount the city will appropriate annually for its support. Mr. Carnegie will be called on for $50,000, the council voting $7000 annually.

Negro Contributes to Reunion.

Memphis, Jan. 29.—Robert R. Church, a wealthy Memphis negro, has contributed $1000 to Confederate reunion fund. It is the second largest individual subscription yet received.

TO STOP THE FIGHT.

Governor Nash Makes an Effort to Stop
Prize Fighting in Ohio.

Columbus, O., Jan. 29.—Governor Nash declares no prize fight shall be pulled off at Cincinnati if the law will prevent it. He addressed a note to the attorney general demanding that he take steps to stop the fight and a suit to enjoin the Jeffries-Ruhlin fight at Cincinnati was filed in the common pleas court today, the petition being a voluminous document.

The Saengerfest Athletic Association company, the principals in the fight and their managers, and the Cincinnati Zoological company, which owns the grounds on which the Saengerfest hall, where it is proposed to have the fight, is situated, are made defendants. The petition recites that the proposed boxing contest is a "public nuisance and against the peace and dignity of the state." Among the allegations that will be made in support of this claim is that the event would attract a large number of "toughs" to Cincinnati.

Attorney General Sheets says the suit is a petition for an injunction against the parties named, based on the claim that they are about to perpetrate a public nuisance. It is on this claim of nuisance that it is hoped to avoid the question whether the contest is a prize fight or a boxing contest. He points out that both the Mississippi and Indiana courts have abated such things by injunction. The people whose names figure in the case on both sides are of more than local prominence and the outcome interests all the state.

Jeffries and Ruhlin Arrested.

Cincinnati, Jan. 29.—Jim Jeffries and Gus Ruhlin were arrested last night on a warrant sworn out by several persons interested in the coming fight, who acted at the instigation of the Saengerfest Athletic association, charging them with being in training for a prize fight which is in violation of the laws of the state. The two fighters were taken before Squire Roebeling who released both on bond, furnished by one James Wilder. A test case is to be made of their arrest. Roebeling is a magistrate in Delhi township with an office not far from Jeffries' training quarters.

WILL RESIST PAYMENT.

Neely and Rathbone's Bonds Will Not Be Paid Without Lawsuit.

Baltimore, Jan. 29.—President Edwin Warfield of the Fidelity and Deposit company of Baltimore has gone to New York to consult Frank H. Platt, vice president of the company, concerning the $30,000 bond of Charles F. W. Neely, former director of finance of the Cuban postal service. Demand has also been made upon the company for the $10,000 bond of Estes G. Rathbone. President Warfield says that the company has neither admitted nor denied liability in these cases nor will it do so until fully satisfied the claims are just.

Mr. Warfield further says that before a settlement is made the charges made by Neely will have to be satisfactorily explained away. It was further stated that the company does not propose to settle except at the end of a lawsuit. The effect of a suit by the government to collect the amount of Neely's bond will be to throw the merits of the whole case before an American jury and it appears that one of the grounds on which the company will contend against paying will be that Neely's guilt has not been established. A point which the company may raise is this:

On Neely's preliminary hearing in New York, Captain George E. Burton, who first made the charges against him, testified that as far back as January, 1900, he had known of irregularities in the accounts of the director of finance of the postal establishment. In all Fidelity company bonds of the form issued in Neely's case there is contained a clause which reads like this: "This bond will become void as to any claim which the company is responsible hereunder to the employer if the employer shall fail to notify the company of the occurrence of such an act immediately after it shall have come to the knowledge of the employer."

It is said Burton actually knew of the irregularities in January preceding Neely's arrest and this clause of Neely's bond becomes inoperative because the company was not immediately notified.

While the letter to the company making the claim for Rathbone's bond does not allow any criminality, it asserts the government was a loser through him to the extent of $60,000 in the "authorization payments" which had been disallowed in settling his accounts.

"When we were 21"

When Mr. George Clarke and his great supporting company of artists appear in "When we were Twenty-one" which will be presented at the Grand opera house, Bryan

Friday night, Feb'y 8,

Under Ewd. E. Rice's direction, theatre goers will see a most charming play original, exquisite in feeling, well acted and free from elements objectionable to anybody. It is one of the

PUREST PIECES OF COMEDY

In every sense produced in years. Mr. Clarke, the distinguished and popular actor as Richard Carewe has a part which fits him like a glove. He is sincere in his pathos and revel in the humor in which the part abounds.

Communion Service Returned.

Terrell, Tex., Jan. 25.—About four years ago the silver communion service was taken from the Methodist church at this place. Several days ago T. T. Ward, who lives 14 miles east of here, discovered under bushes what proved to be two pewter goblets and two tin plates. He took them to the house and on polishing them discovered them to be silver with Terrell M. E. Church, South engraved on them. They were brought here and identified as the ones lost four years ago.

The authentic reports, which are now finding their way into the pa-duct of the international troops in China, are not only calculated to make civilization shudder with shame and horror, but they suggest the serious inquiry whether civilization is capable of changing the heart of the original savage,

THE INDIAN TROUBLE

Crazy Snake Still Held a Captive
by the Troops.

HE WILL NOT TALK.

The Situation in the Territory Is Becoming More Calm and a Settlement Is Believed to Be in Sight in the Future.

Henrietta, I. T., Jan. 29.—Chitto Harjo, or Crazy Snake, the leader of the warring Creeks, who is a United States prisoner here, still remains sullen and refuses to confer with Lieutenant Dixon. It is believed, however, the chief will sooner or later, show a friendly spirit and that the result will be a prompt ending of the insurrection.

It is argued that Harjo and his followers have been taught to have a greater respect for the army officers than for deputies, believing that the soldier is more apt to treat him fairly. This has been brought about not by the marshal's actions, but because a deputy here, and there in the past has not acted wisely toward them.

When the chief, who was mounted upon his pony and surrounded by four deputies, appeared at the tent of Lieut.
Dixon, he was greeted considerably.

Fifty soldiers grouped about the camp fire sang "The Blue and the Gray," while Lieutenant Dixon made friendly overtures to the prisoner. The Indian sat stoic and proud in his saddle.

"Tell him that the officer wishes to shake his hand as a friend," said Lieut.
Dixon to the interpreter. Harjo grunted his response and slipped from his pony.
In the meantime soldiers hurriedly prepared a tent for the chief, while others grouped themselves about him.

The capture of Crazy Snake is believed here to be the most important move since the outbreak. He has been the agitator and real leader of the dissatisfied Indians.

On the arrival of Harjo at the camp
the carbines of the camp guard were loaded ready for instant action and no soldier is allowed to leave camp. Lieut.
Dixon is determined to be ready for any emergency.

Chitto Harjo was captured by Deputy Johnson, a negro, who has a reputation of being a fearless officer and who last Christmas captured John Tiger, the Creek, at Eufaula, after the latter had killed three men and wounded another.

Word has come from Washington that Chief Pleasant Porter, who is there on business, understands the situation here thoroughly and that he will not return to the territory until the pending treaty passes. Then, it is said, he will come home and call the territorial council together and investigate the present trouble.

The Indians around Watumpka are sending their families into the hills while they themselves are riding over the country in squads heavily armed.

Lee on Indian Trouble.

Washington, Jan. 29.—The war department has received the following telegram from Brigadier General Lee, commanding the department of the gulf, in regard to the Indian troubles, dated Omaha, Jan. 28:

"Lieutenant Dixon, commanding troop
A, Eighth cavalry, at Henrietta, I. T., reports no violence by Indians and no excitement at Holdenville and Eufaula.
People are not leaving their homes and go anywhere without fear. Chitto Harjo, Crazy Snake, was arrested without difficulty and now held at Henrietta.
Dixon has been instructed to give necessary protection to prevent destruction of railways or bridges. So far no acts of violence verified."

Bell Declares Snakes Peaceful.

South McAlester, I. T., Jan. 29.—Daniel
Bell, chief of the Choctaw Snakes, when interviewed here stated that the Indians were not on the warpath and would not molest white people or their property. Railroad people were safe.
No further trouble is expected.

Favors Sale of Islands.

Copenhagen, Jan. 29.—It appears that only a single member out of the 15 comprising the finance committee of the folketing opposes the sale of the Danish West Indies to the United States.
The objector is starting a newspaper campaign in favor of their retention, but the finance committee of the land-thing will shortly report in favor of the sale of the islands. The agitation of the inhabitants of the islands against their sale is largely artificial and therefore of not much weight.

Held up a Cashier.

Kansas City, Jan. 29.—At the office of the Standard Oil company here a young man forced W. E. Irvin, the cashier, at the point of a revolver, into a closet and after locking him in, made off with between $500 and $700 in cash.
The police arrested Ched Coverdale and Ralph Myer. Cashier Irvin has positively identified Coverdale.

Forbid Baseball and Football.

Guthrie, O. T., Jan. 29.—The senate passed a bill prohibiting the playing of baseball and football on Sunday, and one providing for the transfer of the balances in all expended funds in the Territory treasury to the general fund.

Took Too Much Morphine.

Austin, Jan. 29.—Julius Mareau, aged 90 years, an inmate of the Confederate Home, died at that institution from an overdose of morphine.

BOSSCHIETER MURDER.

Three Sentenced to Thirty Years Each
and One for Fifteen.

Paterson, N. J., Jan. 29.—Walter C.
McAlister, William A. Death and Andrew J. Campbell who were found guilty of murder in the second degree for killing Jennie Bosschietter, on Oct.
18, 1900, by the administration of chloral and subsequent rape, together with George J. Kerr, who pleaded not guilty

WILLIAM DEATH.

to the charge of rape, were brought into court today for sentence. McAlister, Campbell and Death were each sentenced to 30 years' imprisonment at hard labor and Kerr to 15 years at hard labor. The sentences of all the men are full terms of imprisonment which the law provides.

RICE WILL CASE.

Motion Made for a Temporary Administrator by a Nephew.

New York, Jan. 29.—Surrogate Gilchrist sitting in chamber is hearing
a motion which may have an important effect on the disposal of the millions of the late William Marsh Rice. It is not generally known that so far as the controversy over the estate of the dead millionaire has been such that the property he left is in somewhat chaotic condition. The stocks and bonds he left in safe deposit vaults in this city still remain and the large holdings of real estate of Mr Rice in Texas are in such a condition that the tenants are paying no rent. This complication all grows out of two wills left by the millionaire.

Other lawyers have now come into the case as representatives of a nephew of the testator. The motion made by them is for a temporary administrator.
If this administrator is appointed it means that he will take charge of the entire estate pending the litigation over the two wills and as "possession is considered nine points in law," there will be a lively fight over the appointment of the temporary administrator.

Consul Hay Coming Home.

Cape Town, Jan. 29.—Adelbert S.
Hay, United States consul at Pretoria, will sail from here tomorrow. According to a dispatch from Washington, dated Dec. 20 last, Consul Hay has obtained permission to return to the United States. It was added he probably will not go back to South Africa and that William D. Gordon of Illinois, United States consular agent at Johannesburg, would succeed Hay as consul at Pretoria.

Boers Not Ready for Peace.

Berlin, Jan. 29.—Dispatch to Lokal
Anzeiger from The Hague says Kruger's ailment consisted of muscular contraction of eye lid, which recent slight operation entirely cured.
The dispatch adds that according to reliable information the Boers do not intend at present to take diplomatic steps but will continue fighting until the general situation in South Africa is strong enough to make the success of diplomatic steps certain.

To Conciliate the Dutch.

Cape Town, Jan. 28.—R. Solomon, attorney general of the late Schriener ministry in Cape Colony, has been appointed legal adviser to the Transvaal colony administration. The appointment was commended as demonstrating the desire of the imperial government to conciliate
the Dutch.

Only Private Papers Destroyed.

New York, Jan. 29.—On Jan. 19 a New York paper printed a special dispatch from Washington which said that more than 80,000 pension claims in the office of Milo B. Stevens & Co., had been destroyed by fire. The subject matter of this dispatch was handled from New York. The Associated Press is informed by Milo B. Stevens & Co., that the papers destroyed were private records and included no applications, affidavits or other evidence sent them by their clients. The interruption to their business was very slight.

Application for a Receiver.

New York, Jan. 29.—Application has been made before Vice Chancellor Emory at Newark for the appointment of a receiver for the Rogers Locomotive works. William Pennington, as counsel for Joseph S. Rogers, the principal owner, made the application. The receiver will be appointed next Saturday.
Last Saturday the concern ceased to exist as the Rogers Locomotive works, and the directors became trustees. The works will now be sold to the highest bidder as the law provides.

Big Ranch Deal.

Fort Worth, Tex., Jan. 29.—A deal
was consummated Monday whereby Charles E. Hicks of Little Rock, Ark., becomes the possessor of the Jim Reed ranch, comprising 7000 acres, and located twelve miles north of Fort Worth.
The property was purchased from D. R.
Fant Jr., of Georgetown, the consideration being $60,000.

Women Who Work

Nine out of ten women are afflicted with some of the common ailments known as female diseases. Among women whose employment requires them to stand on their feet or sit in the same position all day, not one in twenty-five escape these troubles. The average feminine constitution cannot, unaided, withstand the strain to which steady, trying work subjects them. The organs of womanhood are so delicate and finely adjusted that the inevitable result of constant standing, lifting, stooping or straining is displacement of vital parts. The disorder is usually slight at first, but soon develops into irregular or painful menstruation, leucorrhoea or falling of the womb. Wine of Cardui is the right remedy for female weakness. As such it is offered to you. Wine of Cardui will not perform miracles, but it will, if taken as directed, insure painless and regular operation of the menstrual function. It will drive out every trace of leucorrhoea, and will so strengthen the ligaments that falling of the womb will be an impossibility. Don't you think it would pay you to try a medicine with such a record as that? You can get a $1 bottle of Wine of Cardui at any drug store and use it in the privacy of your home.

WINE OF CARDUI

Townsend, Ga., May 18, 1899.
I have been in bad health with falling of the womb, weak back, nervousness and heart palpitation. At monthly periods I would be in bed suffering great pain.
Lately I have been taking Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Black-Draught, and they have brought me wonderful relief. I have no pain, and do not stop work at the monthly period.

THE URSULINE CONVENT.

Contract Has Been Awarded to George Jenkins of Bryan.—Building to be Ready for the Fall Term.

Upon the resubmission of bids for the building of the Ursuline Convent here, the contract was again awarded to Mr. George Jenkins of Bryan. New bids were called for owing to modifications in the plans which reduced the expense of the building several thousand dollars without reducing its area or comfort and utility. The Ursuline sisters found the modifications necessary owing to pressing financial circumstances since the great storm in September when their Galveston property suffered irreparable loss. Under the modifications the basement story will not be made and the interior finish of the wing, to be occupied by the sisters, will not be completed at present. The sisters will arrange outside of the contract for the plumbing and electric lighting. Mr. Jenkins, the contractor, has a large amount of brick and other material ready for the building, which will be completed in ample time for the fall term to open. Architect N. J. Clayton was here from Galveston yesterday and the contract was duly signed. The work will begin without delay.

HARVEY.

Harvey, Texas, Jan. 28.—A large crowd attended the debate Saturday night. The subject was, "Resolved, That Ambition is a Greater Curse to Man Than Superstition." Mr. Marion Ferguson, affirmative; W. S. McClung, negative. The affirmative won. A cake and some beautiful roses and violets were given to the winner. Nice music on the violin, guitar and piano added success to the debate.

Mr. Horace Dansby and wife, Misses Mary Morgan, Etta Bullock, and Irene Vandever attended church here Sunday.

Miss Maggie Holland of Green's prairie come over Saturday night. Mr. Willie McCollough of Bryan attended church here Sunday.

Mr. Tony Dyess and wife are visiting relatives at Edge. Mr. Offa Williams and wife visited Dr. Todd Sunday.

Rev. Bullock preached interesting sermons Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Ned Graham, from near College, visited relatives at Harvey Saturday.

Miss Leila Griffin has charge of her music class now. She has just recovered from lagrippe.

Mr. and Mrs. Coon Williams are suffering with the lagrippe.

Prof. Sims, Miss Lula Pate and Miss Fannie McClung are progressing nicely with their school.

Messrs. D. P. Cole and Green Buchanan have added a nice front room to their houses.

Mrs. Dyess is on the sick list. Services at Brightlight next first Sunday. Bonami.

NEAL, MADISON COUNTY.

Dear Eagle:—As it has been some time since we let your many readers hear from us through the columns of your highly esteemed paper, we came to the conclusion that we would let your readers hear from Neal as we never see any news from here.

Health is not very good, but not much fatal sickness that we have heard of. There is lots of lagrippe.

Plowing in this vicinity is progressing nicely as we have had some pretty weather for work.

Mr. and Mrs. Solley and little son, Walter, of the Little Cedar community visited Mr. Jim Grant's family Thursday and Friday.

Miss Sula Conn visited Mr. McBride's family last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Dudley and little daughter, Sybal, and Miss Ivy Grant of Little Cedar community spent Friday night in this vicinity. They were en route to Madisonville.

Prof. and Mrs. Jim Conn and children, Oner, Eulon and Jewel, and Miss Sula Conn paid Madisonville a visit Saturday. Success to the Eagle and its readers. A Correspondent.

The Eagle prints elsewhere in this issue an application by the city of Bryan to the legislature for local or special law enabling the city of Bryan to sell certain public property in the city.

TEXAS LEGISLATURE.

Bill Passed Extending Time for Storm Stricken Counties to Pay Taxes.

Austin, Jan. 29.—The governor this morning sent in a special message to the legislature asking relief for the flood sufferers from taxation for two years.

The senate passed the bill relieving cities of less than 10,000 inhabitants under the late federal census from operation of the state text book law for another year.

The house considered the sheriffs fee bill at some length without final results.

Austin, Jan. 29.—The house spent sometime yesterday in an attempt to amend the rules as to consideration of bills without result.

The bill extending the time of paying state and county taxes for 1900 for 90 days in the counties of Brazoria, Galveston, Grimes, Matagorda, Fort Bend, Harris, Waller, Austin, Wharton, Jackson and Chambers was engrossed, after an amendment was adopted adding Brazos, Burleson, Washington, Robertson and Montgomery counties. The rules were suspended and the bill passed finally.

Many committee reports were made to the house and several bills introduced. The senate held no session.

Will Fight the Bill.

Fort Worth, Tex., Jan. 29.—Dr. Duncan, president of the association of drugless doctors organized here Saturday, says the organization will fight to the bitter end the efforts of the regular school to have passed at this session of the legislature a bill which seeks to shut out from practice in this state all doctors other than the regular school. If the bill should become a law the association, says the president, will carry the matter on up to the supreme court.

Separate Waiting Rooms.

Austin, Jan. 29.—The house committee on state affairs acted favorably on the bill by Mr. McNally, providing that railroad companies shall provide separate waiting rooms in stations for negroes.

DEMAND SAME PRICE.

Various Countries Want Armor Plate at Price Paid by America.

Washington, Jan. 29.—It is said by well informed naval officials that Europe will demand that American manufacturers supply them with armor at the same price as the Carnegie and Bethlehem companies are delivering it to the United States. Under the contract now in force between these companies and the government the price, including royalties, is $454 a ton for Krupp and $411 for Harveyized armor. Great Britain, France, Germany, Russia and Italy have been paying more than $500 a ton and Japan more than $700.

No limit was placed by the house upon the price to be paid for armor for the battleships and armored cruisers authorized in the pending appropriation bill and it is apparent the arrangement by Secretary Long with the armor companies is unacceptable to congress.

Mysterious Death.

Racine, Wis., Jan. 29.—Body of Frances L. Rawson, one of the most prominent musicians and band leaders in this state, was found upon a sidewalk near the southern limits of this city. The cause of his death is a mystery. The physicians who were called have been unable to decide as to the cause of death and the coroner will demand a postmortem examination.

Pan American Athletic Contests.

New York, Jan. 29.—The Athletic contests at the Pan American exposition will be second to none ever held in America or Europe. They will continue for six months and will be open to the world and be held in one of the most spacious and magnificent halls ever erected.

Fire at Des Moines.

Des Moines, Jan. 29.—Fire here completely destroyed Frankel Bros.' large department store and damaging adjoining structures. Several firemen injured by falling walls but none fatally. Total loss $570,000. Insurance will cover the losses.

Judge Pearl's Body Found.

New Orleans, Jan. 29.—A dispatch from Port Gibson, Miss., says the body of Judge N. Pearl was found in Mississippi river near Grand Gulf, with heavy weights attached. He had been missing for two weeks.

Li Hung Chang Ill.

Shanghai, Jan. 29.—A dispatch to the North China Daily News of this city, from Peking, says that Li Hung Chang is suffering from fever and delirium, his life being despaired of.

Killed by Police Sergeant.

Memphis, Tenn., Jan. 29.—Joe Knight, a notorious character, was shot and killed here by Police Sergeant Perry, when Knight was attempting to shoot.

King Edward Returns to England.

London, Jan. 29.—King Edward arrived in London at 8 o'clock this afternoon. A large crowd welcomed him at the Victoria station.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

The report that Lord Salisbury will resign the premiership of King Edward's cabinet is denied by that official. Ambassador Choate will represent the United States at the funeral of Queen Victoria.

Jacob Kuntz, a hermit, starved to death at Peoria, Ill., with $458 in cash and owned a valuable tract of land.

Mrs. R. D. Norville suicided at Muncie, Ind., by shooting herself. Her mind was wrecked by sorrow and morphine.

SENATE ELECTRIFIED.

Senator Towne Demands Attention of Staid Old Senators.

HIS ORATORY GRAND.

His Speech Was Followed With Earnest Attention and at One Time the Galleries Applauded—Towne Left After His Speech.

Washington, Jan. 29.—The senate turned from the grind of appropriations yesterday to listen to a speech which partook of the character of an oration from Senator Towne of Minnesota. Since he entered the senate a few weeks ago on appointment of Governor Lind, the young Minnesotan has had little opportunity to display his talents. As his reputation as an orator had preceded him, there was much interest in his speech, which was in advocacy of his resolution for a cessation of hostilities in the Philippines.

The floor was crowded with senators and members of the house, the latter including Representatives Littlefield, McCall, Cooper and others who have been prominent in insular legislation. The galleries, public and private, were crowded to overflowing. The senators on the Democratic side gave Mr. Towne marked attention. On the Republican side the attention was less noticeable, although Mr. Hoar and Mr. Hale at first followed the speech closely, at times exchanging a smiling comment on some of the utterances. At one point Mr. Depew took a front seat and listened attentively.

Mr. Towne's style of delivery was clear and forcible. Although restricted by manuscript he had the subject well in hand and rolled out the fine periods with a fervor that sent them echoing through the chamber. The speech abounded in apothosis to liberty and seathing scornful arraignment of the policy by which the Filipinos were being annihilated. At one time an outburst of applause from the galleries led to a vigorous warning from the presiding officer against demonstrations of approval or dissent. As the orator closed his brilliant peroration there was another outburst of applause despite the warnings of the chair.

Immediately following Mr. Towne's speech the credentials of his successor, Mr. Clapp of Minnesota, were presented and after being sworn in the new senator took his seat and Mr. Towne retired.

The rest of the day was devoted to the Indian appropriation bill the discussion turning on irrigation and little progress being made.

The major portion of the day in the house was occupied in the transaction of District of Columbia business.

The bill to revise and codify the postal laws which has been under consideration at intervals for 10 days was finally passed.

The most interesting feature of the day was an attempt to secure a vote upon the senate bill to consider and adjudicate claims of United States citizens against Spain arising out of the war with Spain which this government assumed by certain conventions of the treaty of Paris. The bill was placed on the calendar for next Monday for further consideration.

Stephens and Flynn Scrap.

Washington, Jan. 29.—When the house met today Mr. Stephens of Texas arose to a question of privilege in connection with the exchange which took place between himself and Mr. Flynn, delegate from Oklahoma, just prior to adjournment Monday, when the direct lie was almost passed. Mr. Stephens read the language used by Flynn in which the latter charged that he (Stephens) had surreptitiously inserted in the bill to ratify the agreement with Kiowa and Comanche Indians which became a law June 6, 1900, a clause giving white settlers the right to take such of these Indian lands as contained minerals. After some warm passages between the two gentlemen the incident was closed.

Mrs. Nation Appeals for Aid.

Topeka, Jan. 29.—Mrs. Nation interviewed Governor Stanley and Attorney General Goddard yesterday. She demanded the enforcement of the prohibitory law and appealed to the legislature in the afternoon. The governor said her motive was great but her methods bad. She invited the governor to join her in a saloon smashing crusade, but he refused. The governor told her if she would have officers place the joint keepers in jail he would see that they are kept there.

Contractor Gibson Standing Trial.

Jackson, Miss., Jan. 29.—J. F. Gibson, the Indiana building contractor, who has been brought back from Detroit, was arraigned in the circuit court here Monday afternoon on the charge of attempting to bribe Governor Longino in connection with the statehouse contract. He entered a plea of not guilty and the trial has commenced.

A Fearful Mistake.

Parkersburg, W. Va., Jan. 29.—Five persons dead and one severely wounded, two engines and 10 loaded cars wrecked is the result of a mistake that the train crew made between Petroleum and Volcano Junction on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. An engineer mistook the first section of a passing train for the second. Thinking both had passed he pulled his train into the main track and sped onward to what seemed to have nearly been his death.

BREVITIES.

PERSONALITIES.

The Prince of Wales has taken to writing verse.

Sir William Huggins, K. C. B., the astronomer, has been elected president of the Royal society, in succession to Lord Lister.

Chester A. Arthur had been collector of the port of New York, but had never held an elective office until he became vice president.

Bishop Potter of New York deprecates the decline of home cooking and expresses sorrow for the coming of what he calls the "tinned" era.

Charles M. Hays, the new head of the Southern Pacific railroad, was born in 1858 and in 1873 was a clerk in San Francisco, getting $40 a month.

Henry H. Rogers, the New York millionaire and copper king, was 50 years ago selling newspapers on the streets of New Bedford, Mass. He then went into a grocery store, getting $3 a week and board.

Hoke Smith of Atlanta, newspaper man and former member of President Cleveland's cabinet, has given traveling libraries to 14 counties in Georgia. The books are intended for school children and are to make the circuit of the schools.

Dr. Oscar Loew, who has resigned from the United States agricultural department to become a member of the faculty of the Agricultural college of the Japanese Imperial university at Tokyo, will receive in that position a salary of $7,000 a year.

Christine Nilsson cherishes in a unique way mementos of her triumphs on the concert stage. One of her rooms is papered with leaves of music taken from the various operas in which she has appeared. Another is decorated with receipted hotel bills made out in her name during her tours.

Tom L. Johnson, the noted capitalist and single tax advocate of Cleveland, is a most charitable man, but has a great aversion to professional beggars. He returned recently from a trip abroad and reports that he could not become accustomed to the universal European custom of "tipping."

Captain Dreyfus has been in Paris for the last few weeks, but he goes out very little and sees no one. Mme. Dreyfus has remained in Geneva, where the family has now definitely settled for the education of the two children, who, for obvious reasons, could not be brought up in a French public school. Captain Dreyfus will probably stay there some time.

Colonel George P. Gross of Kansas City has a spoon that cost him $19,000. Years ago he was offered that sum for his share in a Mexican mine. He refused, and a day or two later the property was flooded by rains. Then came a cave in which ruined the property. Out of the ore on the bank Mr. Gross had a silver spoon made, and that is all he has to show for his $19,000.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

The French Legion of Honor is the biggest order of merit. It numbers 55,000 members.

Of the 6,753 Finns who came to this country in 1899 only 17 were sent back, only 62 were unable to read and write, and only 14 were said to be likely to become public charges.

The winner of the chief prize of $200,000 in the Paris exposition drawings is a poor laborer earning a weekly wage of $7.50. He has three children and an aged mother depending upon him.

The tramp question in the United States has been a most serious one ever since the introduction of railroads. It is estimated that no less than 10,000 are carried nightly on trains and that 10,000 more are waiting to steal a ride at the same time.

Philologists are already noting that the English language is to be enriched by three new words as a direct result of the South African war—namely, "khaki," "kopje" and "commandeer"—to each of which future lexicographers will give a distinctive meaning.

A young woman of Saco, Me., recently purchased a pretty bit of bric-a-brac at a great bargain. Soon after the whilst club of which she is a member met at her home, and her chagrin could hardly be imagined when she discovered that the fortunate winner of this article was the very clerk who sold it.

ORCHARD AND GARDEN.

All manures for the garden should be thoroughly rotted and fined before applying.

An unfruitful orchard may often be brought into bearing by a heavy application of good stable manure.

In keeping onion sets through the winter it should be remembered that a cool, dry temperature is the essential thing.

Every tree requires a certain amount of space according to its kind. You can crowd only at the risk of getting reduced crops.

The greatest success is attained by keeping up a uniform growth with a proper balance between the wood and fruit growth.

It is nearly always better economy to grub out all trees that are stunted and sickly than it is to try to restore them to vigor. Diseased wood never becomes sound.

In planning to plant a windbreak it is quite an item to select trees of a close growing habit and of as nearly perpetual foliage as possible. Then by planting a double row of them the effect desired may be secured.—St. Louis Republic.
